MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

This matter came before the Court on December 20, 2005 for a telephone conference hearing on a discovery dispute. Attorney Shelley Wilson represented the plaintiff. Attorney John Quinn represented the defendants.

The plaintiff requested reconsideration and/or clarification of the Court's earlier Memorandum And Order [Doc. 81] on this dispute. After hearing from counsel, the Court concluded that it had misunderstood the facts relevant to the dispute, and as a result, that the earlier ruling should be amended.

Accordingly, the Court ORDERS that its earlier Memorandum And Order [Doc. 81] is hereby AMENDED, and the plaintiff may take a total of twenty-four (24) depositions. Further leave from the Court to take any depositions beyond that number will require a strong showing of good cause.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
